Summary of the Event

On 15th November 2022, the Women Empowerment Cell conducted a Self-Defence Program for Women, coordinated by Mrs. K. Sowndarya, Associate Professor. Sixty female students participated in the session, which focused on teaching practical self-defence techniques to build confidence and ensure personal safety. The program emphasized awareness, quick response to danger, and physical preparedness, empowering the participants to handle real-life situations effectively and promoting a sense of strength and independence.
