Summary of the Event

On 8th March 2024, in celebration of International Women's Day, the Women Empowerment Cell organized a session on "Women's Role in Daily Life," coordinated by Mrs. M. Vanitha, Associate Professor. The event highlighted the multifaceted roles women play in families, workplaces, and society. A total of 120 students attended the program, which included interactive discussions, real-life stories, and motivational talks. The session emphasized the importance of recognizing women's contributions, promoting equality, and encouraging young women to take pride in their everyday achievements. It successfully inspired participants to value and support the vital roles women perform in daily life.
