Summary of the Event

On 25th June 2024, in observance of the International Day Against Drug Abuse, a special awareness program titled "Say No to Drugs" was organized under the Socioeconomic Initiative. The event aimed to educate and sensitize students about the harmful effects of drug abuse and the importance of making healthy lifestyle choices. A total of 137 students and 15 faculty members participated in the program.

The session included an informative talk, interactive discussions, and real-life case studies to highlight the physical, mental, and social consequences of drug addiction. Posters and slogans created by students were also displayed to reinforce the message. The program encouraged students to become responsible citizens and support peers in staying away from substance abuse.

This initiative successfully raised awareness and empowered students to say no to drugs, fostering a safer and healthier community.
